Fisciano (Salerno), 7-8 June 2018 - CALL FOR SOCIAL EXPO

Sociological imagination and social promotion: the category of “agapic action” to interpret the changes and to imagine new futures.

Call for Social Expo

Within the international conference “Sociological imagination and social promotion: the category of “agapic action” to interpret the changes and to imagine new futures”, The Department of Political, Social and Communication Sciences of the University of Salerno and the Social-One research network, in partnership with 11 universities and research institutes in Italy and worldwide, promotes the SOCIAL EXPO.

Through informative posters, the Social Expo aims to be a space to share best practices, concrete experiences and various interventions, regarding the following four topics analyzed in the congress:

- a) Protagonist communities, sharing culture and grassroots movements;
- b) Cooperation, dialogue, sustainability, and peace-making process in the field of macro-social actions;
- c) Relationships, inclusion and well-being in social policies;
- d) Multiculturalism and promotion of dialogue in identity processes.

The Social Expo aims to make concrete territorial actions visible, especially those coming from everyday activities and initiatives of institutions, groups, private or public organizations, single social actors. Thus, various territorial experiences, in addition to different origins, areas of intervention and expertise will be able to find a space for visibility, know-how exchange, interactive learning and identification of sustainable and reproducible practices.

Both public and private groups, associations, institutions, administrations and centers can take part in the convention. In other words, the participation is allowed to all kinds of social actors who, in different ways, work in the social sector and want to share best practices about the above-mentioned topics.

Every initiative must be highlighted through a POSTER, which can include prints, images, diagrams, texts and everything the proponent’s phantasy can suggest in order to present his experience in the most visible and understandable possible manner.

Distinctive features of posters

- Posters must be written in English and/or in Italian.
- The maximum dimensions of the poster must not exceed mm 900 (width) x mm 1900 (height). All the images and texts must be included in these dimensions.
- Posters must include, in its high part, a clear and visible title, personal data of the proponent and contact details (telephone number, email, etc.)
- Bring your poster already printed. There will be no printing services available on site.
- The combination of images and texts should be made in order to facilitate comprehension and identification. Every element being part of the poster must be readable from the minimum distance of two meters.
